KEENE POLICE DEPARTMENT
Bureau of Parking
400 Marlboro Street
Keene, NH 03431-4336

To whom it may concern,

I'm sorry to say another of your agents, Officer 145, is attempting to initiate conflict with me. Let it be known that I'm not interested in conflicting with you or your agency. I'm writing in response to a "PARKING TICKET" that was left on my car, ticket #60240406.

I am a peaceful man and will do no harm. I honor my agreements, and to that end I would like to remind you and your fellow agents that there is no evidence of an agreement between us. I have requested proof of my obligation to obey your agency's ordinances and statutes in the past, and none was ever provided. You're still welcome to provide proof of my obligation at any time and providing it is legitimate (not obtained under duress and with full knowledge and consent of both parties), I'll happily pay your fine. I'm sure you understand that common sense dictates that one who claims to be owed money is expected to show upon demand, the proof of their claim, particularly in the form of the signed instrument (contract) that binds me to the obligation that is being claimed. The Uniform Commercial Code (which is part of your organization's own statutes) makes this pretty clear.

I am at peace and have harmed no one. Will you continue to attempt to initiate conflict with me or will you do the honorable thing and discharge this matter?

Please note that any correspondence is subject to being posted on the blog at FreeKeene.com

Sincerely and with a full reservation of rights,
